

NUS KS Privacy Policy Ver.1.0

The contents of this Privacy Policy are provided as follows.

This Policy contain compulsory matters of the privacy policy required by relevant laws and regulations and other details regarded as important by NUS KS in protecting personal information.

1. Personal Information Collected

Users may access the majority of NUS KS's services in a manner equivalent to members, such as information searches and viewing notices after subscribing as members. When a user subscribes to use personalized or membership services NUS KS collects the minimum amount of personal information needed for him/her to use such services and to provide a better services.

You should not provide false information regarding your name, date of birth, mobile phone number, etc. when you sign up as our member. Please make sure that the information registered in your member account is accurate and up-to-date. You should not sell, transfer, lend or provide your account as security or allow others to use it. Also, you should not use another person's account which does not belong to you without permission.

The personal information that NUS KS collects from users at the time they sign up for membership is as follows: When a user signs up for membership, his/her ID, password, name, date of birth, gender, major, and other additional personal information that can be added after updates are collected as required fields.

- Personal information collected from users during their service use is as follows.
 - Your profile information (nickname, profile picture) can be set in your member information or individual services. Additional personal information may be collected only from users who participate in an event, or register for a giveaway event.
 - The IP address, cookies, service usage records, device information, and location information may be generated and collected during service use.
 - Personal information may be provided from outside companies or organizations partnered with NUS KS, and in such cases, the partner is required to obtain consent from users to provide personal information under the Personal Information Protection Act before such information is provided to NUS KS.

2. Use of Collected Personal Information

Personal information is used to manage members of NUS KS and all other related services (including mobile web/app), develop, provide, and improve services, and establish a safe Internet environment.

- Personal information is used for member management, such as confirming members' intention to subscribe, confirming the age, proceeding with obtaining consent from legal representatives, verifying the identity of users and their legal representatives, identifying users, and confirming their intention to unsubscribe.
- In addition to the purpose of providing existing services (including advertisements) such as contents, personal information is used to discover new service elements and improve existing services such as demographic analysis, analysis of visits to services and usage records, building user-to-user relationships based on personal information and interests, and providing tailor-made services based on acquaintances and interests.

- o Personal information is used to protect users and operate services by means such as preventing and imposing sanctions against acts that interfere with the smooth operation of services, including measures restricting the use by members who breach the statutes, preventing account theft and fraudulent transactions, sending out notices regarding a revision to the terms and conditions, preserving records for dispute mediation, and handling civil complaints.
- o Personal information is used for personal authentication, and deliveries of products and services for the provision of some events.
- o Personal information is used for marketing and promotion purposes such as providing event information, opportunities for participation, and advertising information.
- o Personal information is used for service usage records and access frequency analysis, statistics on service use, service analysis, and providing tailor-made services and advertising according to statistics.
- o Personal information is used to establish a service environment that users feel safe to use in terms of security, privacy, and safety.

3. Provision & Entrustment of Personal Information

NUS KS can provide personal information to the third party. Being a member of NUS KS is considered as personal agreement to provide his/her personal information in order to use the service of an outside partner, if NUS KS becomes obliged to submit personal information under the relevant partnership, marketing, relevant laws and regulations, or an urgent risk to life or safety of users is identified.

Cases where personal information is provided following user consent/Stock Status of Personal Information Use Policy/Info/Consent where personal information is provided under the law (NUS KS Privacy Content)

- NUS KS entrusts part of its work to the outside to provide convenient and better services.
- NUS KS entrusts part of its work necessary to provide services to outside companies, stipulates the matters necessary for the entrusted party to safely process personal information, and carries out management or supervision to ensure such safe processing, in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act.
- NUS KS can safely use data within and outside Korea/Singapore to continue providing the company's services even in the event of natural disasters and catastrophes.

4. Application of this Privacy Policy

- This Privacy Policy is applied to the NUS KS website, a brand of NUS KS, and other related services (including mobile web/app) and events, whereas a separate privacy policy may be applicable to services provided under a different brand name.

NUS KS Terms of Service Ver.1.0

Welcome to NUS KS!

Thank you for using our services and products (“NUS KS Service(s)” or “Service(s)”). These NUS KS Terms of Service define the relationship between NUS KS, which provides NUS KS Services, and members of NUS KS (“Member(s)”) or non-members, who use such Services, with regard to the use of various NUS KS Services, and contain useful information which may help you use NUS KS Services. By using our Services, you are deemed to have been notified of NUS KS Terms of Service, and by signing up as a Member, you are deemed to agree to be bound by these NUS KS Terms of Service and additional relevant operation policies. Please take a moment to read these NUS KS Terms of Service carefully.

By using our Services, you are deemed to have been notified of NUS KS Terms of Service, and by signing up as a Member, you are deemed to agree to be bound by these NUS KS Terms of Service and additional relevant operation policies. Please take a moment to read these NUS KS Terms of Service carefully.

Enjoy various NUS KS Services.

NUS KS provides a variety of Services that can make your life more convenient such as information searching, communication with other users, provision of contents, through NUS KS domain websites and applications (apps). You can freely use various NUS KS Services through different kinds of devices used to access the Internet such as PCs (and mobile phones).

NUS KS provides the same service contents to all of you in principle. However, in certain circumstances, it partially restricts use of its Services by providing different service contents and restricting the permitted time for use and frequency of use of its Services pursuant to applicable laws and regulations such as the Juvenile Protection Act or other special need in providing individual services. For more information, please refer to Information and Notice sections under each Service and Help section under the Customer Center.

While these NUS KS Terms of Service apply to NUS KS Services by default, there are circumstances for which additional or individual terms and conditions or operation policies may apply in providing various NUS KS Services and Events. Moreover, for certain services provided by NUS KS’s affiliates, such affiliates’ own terms and conditions or operation policies may apply.

By signing up as a Member, you can use NUS KS Services more conveniently.

You may sign up to be a Member after reading and providing your consent to these NUS KS Terms of Service. NUS KS completes the registration process by providing its approval and provides a NUS KS Service user account (“Account”). An account is a member authentication unit set up to manage history of each user’s usage of various Services once the Member logs in to NUS KS Services.

Members may use their accounts to enjoy various NUS KS Services in a more convenient way.

We will value all contents provided by you.

NUS KS hopes your posts shared with other users through NUS KS Services will enrich the lives of all of us. Posts refer to various contents or files composed of signs, texts, voices, sounds, pictures, photographs, videos, links, etc. that you post on NUS KS Services in order to show them to yourself or others.

Meanwhile, in order to duly provide the posts that you have posted through NUS KS Services, NUS KS needs to have a legitimate right to use your contents such as a license to store, copy, reproduce, modify, publicly transmit, display, distribute, and create derivative works (only limited to translation) of such contents (license without any restriction on term or territory and royalty free). Since you will be granting NUS KS such license by posting the content, you must have the necessary rights to do so.

Pursuant to applicable laws such as the Copyright Act of the Republic of Korea, NUS KS will exercise such license granted by you, to use your contents, only to the limited extent of exposing the contents within NUS KS Services, utilizing them for promotion of Services, conducting research and development on service operation, improving and developing new services; complying with legal obligations such as web accessibility; allowing search, collection and links from other sites. If NUS KS unavoidably needs to use your contents for other purposes.

Moreover, valuable contents that you provide may be used by NUS KS and its affiliates for purposes of research and development related to artificial intelligence technology, etc. in order to improve NUS KS Services and offer new NUS KS Services. NUS KS will do its best to provide you with more convenient and useful service through continuous research and development.

NUS KS is committed to providing various means of making it easier for you to manage NUS KS or other users' use of or access to the contents that you provide. If management functions to delete or make your contents private are provided within the NUS KS service, you may directly control others' use of or access to your contents. Also, you may request measures to delete, make your contents private, or exclude your contents from search results to the Customer Center. However, for some NUS KS Services, it may be difficult to delete or make your contents private, so please check the details provided by Information and Notice sections under each Service and Help section under the Customer Center.

Please respect the rights of others.

Posts you casually put on may result in infringement of rights of others such as infringement of copyright or defamation. In order to solve such problem, NUS KS manages Request for Notice and Take-down Service, pursuant to which a post may be taken down upon the request of the right-holder or posted again when the original poster made an objection, based on applicable laws such as the "Information and Communications Network Act" and "Copyright Act". Meanwhile, when you use others' contents through NUS KS Services, this does not mean that you have the intellectual property right over such contents. In order to freely use such contents, special caution is required as such use must be within the scope permitted by applicable laws such as the Copyright Act or you need separate permission from the person holding the intellectual property right to use such contents.

NUS KS grants you the authority to use relevant software accompanying NUS KS Services so that you can fully utilize NUS KS Services. In this case, please note that you are free to use such software only to the extent that it complies with NUS KS's Terms of Use, that such authority is non-transferable, and that non-exclusive terms and Legal Notification will apply.

Take advantage of the various Points that NUS KS offers.

NUS KS provides points to help you use NUS KS Services efficiently. Points mean virtual data on Services with certain calculation unit which NUS KS provides in conjunction with your use of NUS KS Services by arbitrarily setting or adjusting the value. They do not have any property value and thus cannot be converted into cash or provided as a refund, but there are cases when the amount of points you have may affect your use of NUS KS Services, so please feel free to use them appropriately depending on each circumstance.

NUS KS may unavoidably have to adjust a part or all points after notifying you in advance if such adjustment is necessary to support efficient use of NUS KS Services or improve service operation. In addition, points may be extinguished on a regular basis based on the period designated by us, so please be mindful of this while you are using NUS KS service.

There are some precautions you should keep in mind with regard to use of NUS KS Services.

NUS KS is trying its best so that you can freely and conveniently enjoy NUS KS Services. However, we need your help and cooperation in order to ensure safer use of NUS KS Services and to ensure respect and protection of the rights of you and others. Your posting or use of NUS KS Services may unavoidably be limited for to ensure safe use of Services and protection of rights in the following events, so please check and comply with the following.

- You should not provide false information regarding your name, date of birth, mobile phone number, etc. when you sign up as our member. Please make sure that the information registered in your member account is accurate and up-to-date. You should not sell, transfer, lend or provide your account as security or allow others to use it. Also, you should not use another person's account which does not belong to you without permission.

- Posts that directly or expressly threaten to physically harm others, posts that encourage or recommend self-harm or suicide to others, posts that expose undisclosed personal information such as personal identity or personal life of others, posts that constantly bully or harass others, posts that suggest, broker, induce or force prostitution, and posts that present a direct and severe threat to public safety may be restricted.
- Posts identified as directly related to crime such as performing or aiding and abetting acts that are prohibited or subject to criminal sanctions under applicable laws, posts that promote, advertise or sell products or services which are prohibited from being promoted, advertised, or sold pursuant to applicable laws, and posts identified as infringing another person's intellectual property right or violating another person's rights through insults, invasion of privacy or defamation may be subject to limitation.
- Posts that cause sexual humiliation or development of distorted view towards sexuality by depicting provocative and explicit sexual activities, posts that contain violent and stimulating contents which may cause sense of brutality or displeasure, posts that deceive another person by impersonating someone other than oneself or raising a false claim, and posts that cause serious feeling of aversion or displeasure by continuing to use excessive profanity and abusive language may be restricted.
- Posts that were posted through abnormal use of NUS KS service functions such as utilization of automated means and posts that do not correspond with the purpose of providing Service by each individual NUS KS Service may also be subject to restriction as they cause inconvenience to other users' normal use of NUS KS service as well as interfere with NUS KS's smooth provision of Services.
- Users should not use NUS KS Services in ways which do not correspond with NUS KS's purpose of providing its services, which is based on the premise that it is the certain user (person) himself or herself that actually uses NUS KS's Services, such as joining or attempting to join as a Member, logging in or attempting to log in to NUS KS service, posting or attempting to post on NUS KS Service, engaging in communication through NUS KS service (e.g., e-mail, messages), collecting ID or posts on NUS KS Services, searching with certain query terms on NUS KS search service or selecting (i.e., click) certain item among the search results by using automated means (e.g., macro program, robot (bot), spider, scraper, etc.) without the prior permission from NUS KS, or attempt to disable NUS KS's technical measures to block such abuse of NUS KS Services (e.g., accessing by constantly changing IPs, making a detour or disabling Captcha through external solution, etc.).
- Users should not insert various contents or files composed of signs, texts, voices, sounds, pictures, photographs, videos, links, etc. in spaces where advertisements are posted or other spaces on NUS KS Services by using automated means without the prior consent of NUS KS. In addition, users may not copy, modify, sell, transfer, lend, provide as security or give another person the permission to use NUS KS Services or software contained in NUS KS Services. Reverse engineering, attempting to extract source code, copying, deconstructing, imitating or otherwise altering the software contained in NUS KS Services is also prohibited (however, if the software is an open source, its own terms and conditions will apply). Moreover, uploading viruses or other malicious codes or abnormal use of service functions in order to interfere with smooth operation of NUS KS Services is prohibited.

NUS KS sometimes has to restrict the use of Services for inevitable reasons

While NUS KS promises to handle your contents containing various information and opinion with care, if your post is in violation of applicable laws or any terms in these NUS KS Terms of Service NUS KS may delete or make such contents private contents or refuse to post such contents.

Certain NUS KS Services contain advertisements.

While using various NUS KS services, you may notice that some individual Services contain advertisements from time to time. Meanwhile if there is a significant need for service operation or improvement, NUS KS may change, modify or terminate Services in part or in whole. If Services are changed, modified or terminated in whole or in part, NUS KS shall not make any separate compensation unless there is a special provision in applicable laws.

In this case, if the event can be foreseen, NUS KS shall provide prior notification before a considerable period of time, and if the event cannot be foreseen, NUS KS shall provide an ex post facto notification and detailed explanation regarding the situation without delay. Also, if the services are suspended, NUS KS shall provide you reasonable and sufficient opportunities to back up your own contents.

NUS KS will make sure to notify you of any suspension or modification of its Services.

While NUS KS is trying its best to provide its Services in a stable manner, NUS KS may have no other choice but to suspend its Services in part or in whole if there are any significant operational issues such as repair, inspection, replacement or disconnection of information communication facilities such as computers or servers. Meanwhile if there is a significant need for service operation or improvement, NUS KS may change, modify or terminate Services in part or in whole. If Services are changed, modified or terminated in whole or in part, NUS KS shall not make any separate compensation unless there is a special provision in applicable laws. In this case, if the event can be foreseen, NUS KS shall provide prior notification before a considerable period of time, and if the event cannot be foreseen, NUS KS shall provide an ex post facto notification and detailed explanation regarding the situation without delay. Also, if the services are suspended, NUS KS shall provide you reasonable and sufficient opportunities to back up your own contents.

Meanwhile if there is a significant need for service operation or improvement, NUS KS may change, modify or terminate Services in part or in whole. If Services are changed, modified or terminated in whole or in part, NUS KS shall not make any separate compensation unless there is a special provision in applicable laws. In this case, if the event can be foreseen, NUS KS shall provide prior notification before a considerable period of time, and if the event cannot be foreseen, NUS KS shall provide an ex post facto notification and detailed explanation regarding the situation without delay. Also, if the services are suspended, NUS KS shall provide you reasonable and sufficient opportunities to back up your own contents.